

Amendments to the Specification

In the Title

Please replace the Title:

“Information processing apparatus, information processing method, and providing medium” with --Apparatus and System for Providing Fee-Based Content--

In the Abstract

Please amend the Abstract as follows:

A user who is repeatedly purchases the same ~~purchasing the same~~ electronic content again is entitled to receive ~~can buy it at~~ a discount price for the additional purchases. This is accomplished by establishing an “Accounting History” of accounting information B that is ~~prepared when the~~ electronic content is repurchased. The price of the repurchased electronic content is set to “Discount Price,” which is less than the original price at which the electronic content was purchased for the first time. Since accounts are settled based on the accounting information with “Accounting History” set to “Discount Price,” the user who is purchasing the same content again can buy it at a discount price.
